COMMUNIST PARTY ELECTION DAY RESULTS

Today's election saw the return of Mayor Kelly and the Democratic ticket to another four years in Chicago and Cook County. In view of the election your reporter could not learn of any scheduled meetings of the Party since the polls were open until six p.m., and inquiries about the city revealed that in most sections the organizers and their helpers were devoting their entire efforts to getting the voters to the polls. This was true of the section as a whole and the branches and wards in particular.

Surprisingly, after the complacent primary vote and the work done since, the total vote today failed to come up to the expectations of both parties. However, the efforts of the Kelly organization in several wards reaped satisfactory results. For instance, in the 2nd and 3rd Wards, largely Negro, the contemplated objective was achieved. It was in these wards that the Democratic Party put on a last minute drive starting with Mrs. Roosevelt's speech and followed up by a personal appeal from Mayor Kelly. The co-operation of the Communist Party and trade union organizations undoubtedly put Kelly across in these two wards with a tremendous plurality.

In making contacts about the city today after it appeared that Kelly would be re-elected, it seemed in the various sections that the prevailing thought among those interviewed was whether or not pre-election promises would be kept by the Mayor. This was particularly true among labor and the Negro. The Party went all out for a "united front" and the results of today speak for themselves. It is difficult to estimate the actual results throughout the city since there was more concentrated action in some sections such as the Negro voters, but it is well to remember that since the withdrawal of the Communist Party candidates, the Party practically demanded that the Party voting strength be directed toward Mayor Kelly.

Various conversations all led to the same thought with regard to the promised relief in many respects, and this was particularly true in our travels on the South Side among the Negroes. Several of the rank and file were contacted during the evening, and while there was an attitude of hopefulness, nevertheless there existed a feeling of uncertainty.

Asking to the various Communist Party organizers and members during the day and evening, there seemed to be a strong optimistic feeling concerning the result of the election, and the prevailing opinion was that a worthwhile objective had been reached. This, of course, is in contrast to the feeling shown by the rank and file or the common worker. These organizers and leaders now plan on achieving their next objective, that is, the fulfillment of the membership drive, and the many talked to indicated that starting immediately all efforts will be directed toward that end with section, ward and branch meetings held semi-weekly, weekly and, if necessary, mass meetings in each and every part of the city.

ELEANOR ISN'T WIVES' ENVOY —5992—

Idea That She Represents U. S. Mothers Pure Hokum; Trip Made for Vanity

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

NEW YORK, Oct. 27—Commenting on Mrs. Roosevelt's trip to Britain, the New York Times says editorially, "We are fortunate, indeed, that the president's wife in this instance can speak for the wives and mothers of the United States," and so forth, which is the most pernicious piece of nonsense that has cluttered up good white paper in any length of time you care to name.

Mrs. Roosevelt does not speak for the wives and mothers of the United States and the Times knows she doesn't and her mission to Britain is unnecessary so far as any public interest is concerned and motivated only by the same vanity and crowning political ambition that have made her a political boss in the house of a do-gooder at home.

Other papers probably will treat themselves to a similar show of courtliness at the expense of truth and honesty which is their privilege, of course, but they are not kidding those millions of wives and mothers of the United States for whom Mrs. Roosevelt does not speak and who will resent the suggestion that she does.

Back to Europe.

It was a dead sure thing that Mrs. Roosevelt sooner or later would find some pretext to justify a trip to Britain not only because it is her habit to be going places all the time but because Britain is the base from which her communistic and social-democratic authorities or feeders are now operating against the preservation of the economic and governmental system of this republic. Having failed to make a good society at home these British Ninilists have been trying to drag down the people of the United States not so much for the love of our country as because the survival of the American way would discredit their contentions.

The most influential of them in the United States and one of the most potent voices in Washington is Harold Laski, of the London school of economics, and it will be seen by anyone who has time for it and sufficient composure these days to concentrate on the subject that we are now turning back to Europe for ideas on how to live and manage a country which grew up with ideas of their kind and that claim of parasites of their region.
and will never of course respond to the suggestions which they are sent for Britain a the United States and on the most prominent voices in Washington to Harriett Laski of the London school of economics, and it will be seen by anyone who has time for it and sufficient composure these days to concentrate on the subject that we are now turning back to Europe for ideas on how to live and manage a country which grew up with some of their kings and fixed classes of peasants or their relations of barons and gentlemen to govern and whose life therefore would not respond to the medicine which may be good for Britain and continental Europe. You don't see Laski around Washington but his influence is there all the time and it is being imposed on the lives of Americans who never even heard of him.

Gracious, but—

If we recognize Mrs. Roosevelt as a cunning and persistent politician then we can better understand her moves and protect ourselves against the deception which operates in the guise of a gracious lady of privileged position.

Of course she is a gracious lady but that has nothing to do with the case except to complicate it. For it is this graciousness and this position of privilege, the immunity from the same conformation that other politicians must submit to, which enables Mrs. Roosevelt to plant her appointments in influential positions in the government, to interfere in official administration and even to enact laws over the refusal of congress, as in the case of her $25,000 income limitation, without assuming any of the risks and/or responsibilities of the political game.

No Credentials.

When the politician is challenged then the gracious lady is affronted by a contemptible call. But if you want some personal experience material you get in touch with some of the newspaper people who were persecuted almost to desperation by her communist friends in the Newspaper guild while she enjoyed a false membership subject to none of the risks and suffering that real workers were exposed to, or interview some little merchant whose business was ruined by a picket line which Mrs. Roosevelt wouldn't cross, because he wouldn't drive his clerks into the clutches of the basic unit of civilization.

Mrs. Roosevelt isn't speaking for the wives and mothers of such Americans or for the wives and mothers who still believe that they and not the state should raise their children and that the home and not the forum nor the town council is the basic unit of civilization.

It is all right for Mrs. Roosevelt to go to England but her reasons for going should not be misrepresented and it is neither honest nor effective bushwah to say that she bears credentials even of the most general or figurative sort from the wives and mothers of the United States.

COMMUNIST PARTY * NEGRO MASS MEETING

Located at 41st and South Parkway in the heart of the Black Belt on Chicago's South Side is the Metropolitan Community Church which has a tremendous seating capacity and in view of recent past happenings such as Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt's speaking appearance as well as being the scene of many political rallies, is wired for sound to accommodate listeners who cannot get inside the building, which today was the seat of an enormous Negro mass rally.

Originally, this meeting was promoted and sponsored by the Chicago Citizens Committee of One Thousand which is a South Side Negro organization. It was intended to have Edgar G. Brown, Director of the National Negro Council, speak. This Negro Council and its affiliates allegedly represent some 5,000,000 Negroes in the United States.

However, with the seeming revival of the March-on-Washington Movement, and with the presence of A. Philip Randolph, International President of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, here in Chicago to address the Institute on Racial Minorities in the Post-war World, today's rally actually was under the auspices of both organizations who are quite closely connected.

It was hoped by the sponsors of this mass meeting that constructive steps or remedies for racial misunderstandings that are leading to riotous conditions in many parts of the country could be not only discussed in a fair and impartial manner, but that through this meeting which would reach a representative portion of the South Side Negro population directly and indirectly, a safe and sane attitude would result.

In view of its Negro membership, the Communist Party in this district was vitally interested in today's meeting, and in addition to the Negro officers, workers and leaders in the South Side District such as Ray Hansborough, Romanis Ferguson, Bertha Dpton, Ex-alderman Dickerson, Attorney William L. Patterson, many others, there were several outstanding white members of the Party present.

The first disturbing portion of the program was a report of a disturbance Saturday night at 55th and Cottage Grove Avenue which was dispersed by the police without too much damage being done. It was said that the principals involved were more or less of the "zoot suit" type, youngsters who shouldn't get ideas from reading newspapers and drinking cheap liquor. The speaker regrettably said that this adolescent false courage is possibly going to be the means of touching off something which

Since that order became effective the Communists have hired the largest halls in Boston, Cleve-

REDS IN PANIC OVER 'LEAK' IN SECRET DRIVE

Expose of Washington Parley
On 'G-Man Smear' Brings
Investigation by N. Y. Office

By KENT HUNTER.

Something akin to panic is sweeping through the upper bracket leadership of the Communist Party of the United States of America.

There are "leaks" in the secrecy with which they seek to clothe meetings of their inner circles.

On Friday the New York
Journal and American told of a secret meeting of Communist leaders in Washington, at which the "Smear Hoover" campaign, directed against the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and J.
Edgar Hoover, its director, was outlined. Aid of certain members of Congress, and "friendly influences" within the structure of the Federal Government were discussed.

HURRIED PARLEY CALLED.

Printing of the story, in New York, caused a hurried conference. All Communist leaders who had attended the Washington meeting were ordered to New York. The Washington Communists, particularly, were subjected to searching questioning to account for how the information about the February "secret" meeting in Washington leaked out.

In addition to the "leak" investigation, the New York conference, on Friday, took up the question of continuing the "Smear Hoover" campaign.

It was suggested that a careful check be made to list every night club, theatre or other amusement spot where the No. 1 G-Man might have visited, and a series of stories prepared for release in the Communist press to follow out the "Stork Club Detective" designation of Hoover by Rep. Vito Marcantonio.

which creates security in place of opportunity, and protects the poorer worker and rewards the good mechanics."

FARLEY CONCLUDED.

Both men were speakers at the dinner of the Bureau of Advertising of the A. N. F. A., which concluded last night the convention of the publishers at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Wilkie began his speech with a humorous reference to his status as a "dark horse" Presidential candidate. He went on vigorously to denounce the Roosevelt New Deal administration for its "weak the rich" theory of taxation, for its bureaucracy and its regulatory suppression of enterprises.

He said:

"Our forefathers believed that progress came from the energies of the people; the function of government was merely to prevent these energies from getting out of bounds. Today the government publicly proclaims the failure of the people's enterprises and has adopted the principle that progress comes from the government itself.

DISCOURAGING BUSINESS.

"If we examine the government's domestic activities — regulation, the tax program, the spending program — we find no evidence of any desire to promote the business of the people."

"Neither the New Dealers, who wrote the laws regulating business enterprises, nor the commissioners who administer those laws, seems to be interested in encouraging business."

On the subject of taxes, he said it is not the amount but the kind of tax that hurts business.

"The basis of a scientific tax program," he said, "is to raise the necessary money with the least possible interference with the enterprises of the people. Admittedly that is not the purpose of the present tax program."

"CAPITAL DRIED UP."

"The idea has been to 'soak the rich' or 'to redistribute income' in order to force certain reform. As a result, our tax system tends to dry up the sources from which industry gets its capital."

Wilkie said he was in agreement with many of the New Deal social controls, although he criticized them as bound by a "vast network of regulation." He discussed the definition of a liberal, and said:

"To the liberal, the purpose of government is unchangeable. It is to have men free."

"The reactionary may desire, with equal sincerity, a prosperous society, but he believes it can be achieved only by the concentration of economic or political power."

"The liberal does not see in the present administration any will to leave men free. He sees only an attempt to increase the powers of government."

Wilkie concluded:

"All the country's liberals are not in Washington."

KNUDSEN ON LABOR

Knudsen, in discussing the problems of labor, said:

"The greatest need in the labor picture today is for better management on the labor side. The technique of getting men out on the street is perfect."

"The picket line is no perfect one — but when it comes to getting the men back again, the technique is not so good."

On the subject of authority, he said:

"Sincerely protects the poorer worker and handicrafts the good mechanic who begins to show the signs of being a boss."

"The young man who enters industry does not want social security, he wants opportunity. Security to my mind is a very much overworked expression. It has almost come to stand for a living whether anyone works or not."

Internal dissension on all-day strikes."

Excluded a Chart

Mr. Davidson charged that he incurred the displeasure of the board in 1938, when he excluded a payroll chart drawn by Mr. Depose from the evidence in The Detroit Times case "because of patent inaccuracies."

He charged also that the review of economic divisions of the board are loaded with Reds of various shades, and that this Communist vermin infest even some of the regional offices.

Mr. Davidson, who was graduated from the New Jersey Law School in Newark in 1928, joined the National Labor Relations Board as a part-time employee in 1937. He got a permanent appointment as trial examiner in January, 1938, at a salary of $4,600 a year.

Upon receipt of the telegram from Mr. Witt informing him of his dismissal, Mr. Davidson addressed another communication to J. Warren Madden, chairman, and Edwin Smith, member of the NLRB, saying that his dismissal added "the touch of a 'scarlet' record of unjust and tyrannical practices" to an employee who has resigned could be dismissed. Mr. Davidson continued:

"I thought that was a custom confined to Stalinist Moscow and other spheres of totalitarian influence. I doubtless you have been taking lessons from those sources in more than one respect." Mr. Davidson said.

"I am too free to form an opinion, and I am more drumhead than impartial at which only one side is given consideration. You are actually a disgrace to the democratic process of the nation. By your telling court of arbitrary law, I am sure you have brought about irreparable damage to the cause of honest unionism. But for the outstanding wisdom of the Supreme Court in overruling your unjust Federal decision, this country would have been thrown into the horrors of civil war over the issue of justice."

"Continue your Roman holiday while you can. Something tells me that the turkey two days before Thanksgiving, you won't be around long. In conclusion may we not sincerely solemn thought for your powerful mediocrity. You haven't heard the last of me."

House Labor Committee Voted for Larger Board, However

Reverted to Two Five Year Terms

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The House Labor Committee rejected today the proposed amendment for abolition of the National Labor Relations Board and creation of a new agency of two members, as recommended by the Smith Committee to investigate the NLRB.

The committee voted, 10 to 8, to keep the proposal sponsored by Hiram W. Garner, Representative Mary T. Wagner, to add two members to the present board.

"We want a larger board," Mrs. Garner said of the amendment approved by the committee and urged by the American Federation of Labor. "The work of the board has increased to such an extent it is almost impossible to increase the membership."

The deciding vote against the Smith committee's proposal was cast on behalf of the House's most noted opponent of the board, Representative Charles E. Hoffman of Michigan, by a Republican colleague, Representative Clyde D. Smith of Maine, who registered his own vote, too, against the amendment.

The situation caused embarrassment among the Republicans in the House.

Mr. Hoffman has pending a bill which would make far more drastic changes in the National Labor Relations Act than those recommended by the committee headed by Representative Howard W. Smith, Democrat, of Virginia.

Mr. Hoffman was out of town today and had, he said, according to his friends, no that if his vote were needed, it would be cast in accordance with his opposition to the present board.

The Labor Committee voted down also another amendment recommended by the Smith committee, to strike from the Wagner act the declaration that it is the policy of the Government to foster collective bargaining.

The Smith bill still is under consideration by the Labor committee and further modifications may be approved before the committee reports it to the House. Previous statements by Labor committee members indicated that few of the recommendations of the Smith committee are likely to be approved.

Supporters of the Smith proposal, however, might fight for their adoption when the bill, as eventually reported, reaches the

Howe Says They Would Betray Us In War—Bathorne Calls Witness 'Hysterical'

Jan. 20, 1942

January 12, 1942 the Steering Committee of the Civil Rights Federation met at 530 Insurance Exchange Bldg., Detroit, Michigan.

Jack Raskin presided at this meeting. First order of business was discussion relative to the coming State convention of the Federation. Frank McKnight, a negro delegate from the State County, and the Municipal Workers Local #285 C. I. O., offered free use of his sound projector at the State convention.

He presented to the committee, a case of discrimination against a member of his race. Stated, that he (McKnight) had entered the French Grill at 10180 Grinell St. Detroit, and had been refused service; that he called the Police and brought charges against the owner; that the owner was brought to trial before Judge Gillis and demanded a jury trial; the defendant's attorney challenged all negroes off the jury and a "not guilty" verdict was returned; that privately Judge Gillis had stated that he would have convicted on the evidence; that he (McKnight) had been a campaign worker for Gillis. McKnight wanted to know what the Federation could do for him and the Committee voted to refer the matter to their attorney, Ernest Goodman.

The plans for the State Conference of this Civil Rights Federation were the principal points of discussion. Numerous suggestions were offered and the best of these will be acted on by the steering committee.

Zier steered the conversation into the proper channels. It was agreed to hold the State Conference on March 15, 1942, the conference to be preceded by a public mass meeting on March 14, 1942 at the Cass Technical High School. The Detroit, Fort Wayne and Fort Shelby, all were suggested as the meeting place for the State conference. Raskin favored Fort Shelby. He stated that some radio men would give them publicity, and if a luncheon at $1.25 per plate is served there will be no charge for use of the Hotel for the conference.

A large list of names of speakers to be invited to speak at the State Conference was discussed. Among these names were those of

R. J. Thomas - U. A. W. - C.
Professor Shepard, - U of M.
Frank Martel - A. F. L.
Orson Wells - Playwright
Paul Robeson - negro singer
Clayton Powell - Negro Council
Dr. Max Yergan - Heads Natio

Mayor Jeffries - Detroit
Governor Murray Van Wagoner, Michigan
Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt - wife of President
Mayor Fiorello La Guardia, New York

It was decided that there would be four (4) panels at the State convention.

It was suggested that Glaster Currant who heads the Youth Group of the R. A. A. C. P. or Columbus Alston, well known negro Communist be chairman of "Negro Problem" panel.

Raskin suggested that R. J. Thomas be requested to send a U. A. U. A. official to preside over the labor panel.

Professor Shepard, suggested to provide over the 5th Column Panel. It was finally decided that the chairman of this panel must be someone who has a thorough understanding of the subversive propaganda issued by Gerald L. K. Smith, Father Coughlin, the K. K. K., the National Workers League, the Dies Committee, and other Fascist and subversive organizations and peoples and publications, such as the New York Times, commentator Boake Carter and Harold True.

It was suggested by Raskin that Professor, Shepard should be made Conference Chairman and also be elected as permanent chairman of the Civil Rights Federation.

Raskin also stated that Ernest Goodman is formulating a plan to aid the aliens to retain their jobs in defense industries. In brief the plan is to form a committee composed of people of irreproachable character and standing, representing labor, teaching professions as well as other professions, this committee to pass on the cases of aliens and in cases where they think the alien is alright to recommend him for re-employment in defense. The committee would then send a letter to the Army and Navy Dept. recommending that employment of particular aliens whom they think are possible. This plan will, in the future, be known as the Shepherd Plan.

Then Raskin stated that plans were being laid to form a new organization with wide scope, more contacts making it possible to reach farther, this would include the organization, "Americans All", as well as religious and social organizations. The central idea will be to carry on the tradition of the Bill of Rights with annual celebration of same. Of course the real idea is for the Civil Rights Federation to broaden out.

The meeting adjourned at 11:00 P. M. and will be called again on January 19, 1942 for further planning. In the meanwhile the Steering Committee will attempt to work on some plans suggested at the meeting.

Among those present were the following:

1. Sylvia Alston - Secretary
2. Frank McKnight - Negro from State, County and Municipal Workers of America; C. I. O. local #285
3. Rev. John Miles - Negro - left the meeting early
4. Al Krinsky - A delegate from the Steel Workers Organizing Committee. C. I. O. Risky is connected with Larsen who runs the "Labor Institute of Social Science open Forum" which is sponsoring a series of lectures which will bring Dr. Harry F. Ward, Anna Louise Strong and other leading Reds to Detroit.
5. Sam (?) - Last name not known. - An Italian about 55 yrs. of age - Believed to be connected with the Professional League for Civil Rights.
6. Jordan Zier - Steering Committee of the Federation
7. Miss Elinor Löffrey - school teacher
8. Jack Raskin - Sec'y of Civil Rts. Fed.

Confidential Informant [redacted] corroborated the above information and added that in addition, [redacted] criticized some of the "mistakes" of the late President Roosevelt, stressing considerably his choice of EDWARD STETTINIUS as chairman of the World Security Committee.

On June 29, 1945, a class was held, according to [redacted] at which time EMANUEL LEVIN acted as chairman. The subject of discussion revolved around the current questions, principally the World Security Charter. The Informant indicated that generally the membership in attendance at the class approved the charter. It was at this meeting that LEVIN stated for the first time that an attempt would be made to keep the LFPA in existence and to have a Communist Party at the same time.

[redacted] advised that also at this meeting EMANUEL LEVIN attacked WESTBROOK EGLER and made mention of the fact that Mrs. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT had recently made a statement saying that she didn't like Communists because she found them to be "untrue." LEVIN complained that Mrs. ROOSEVELT had made her decision after knowing only a few young Communists and that she had thought they were "untrue" because they didn't go around saying that they were Communists.

On July 6, 1945, KAY DORR acted as instructor for a class of the LFPA and the subject for discussion was a resolution by the National Committee of the CPA suggesting the change back to the Communist Party of the United States, according to Confidential Informant [redacted]. Mrs. DORR compared the resolution with the original one published by the National Committee, and all agreed that the movement had made a mistake in dissolving the Party and changing to the CPA. She also advised them at that time of the activity of the National Committee in calling a convention in New York City for July 26 through 28, 1945.

This same Informant indicated that a class of the LFPA was held on July 13, 1945, but a lack of attendance caused the meeting to degenerate into an informal discussion on current affairs. All of the members present severely criticized BROWDER, but agreed that the mistakes that had been made would ultimately be the best thing for the Party inasmuch as the errors proved that collective thinking and leadership could not be replaced by individual thinking.

[redacted] advised that KAY DORR acted as chairman of an LFPA class held on July 27, 1945. The principal activity was a discussion concerning the difficulty in getting out the minutes of the Annual Meeting which had taken place on June 24, 1945. KAY DORR said that in connection with the recent election of the Labor Party in England, the results proved that the people of Europe were determined to have more democracy, a better economic life and political freedom, and concluded that it was a great

"PHONY 'EQUAL RIGHTS' AMENDMENT -- A REPUBLICAN PARTY BAIT FOR WOMEN'S VOTES IN '44"

"History : Introduced first in 1923 as 'men and women shall have equal rights throughout the United States and everywhere, subject to its jurisdiction,' by Senator Charles E. Curtis, Republican of Kansas, later Vice-President under Hoover. Endorsed in 1923 by Republican National Committee at request of T. Coleman DUPont. In 1943 session of Congress as Bill #1, it was reported favorably by the Senate Judiciary Committee, but rejected by the House Judiciary Committee by a vote of 15 to 11.

SPONSORED BY : 'National Women's Party (small group of professional women and social registerites) who make lobbying their main purpose in life. Present outfit not to be identified with original group of many splendid women who fought for women's suffrage. Financed by wealthy women, DUPonts and other interests, the present set-up was reorganized by in 1923 to campaign for this anti-labor amendment exclusively.

Endorsed by National of Business and Professional Women's Clubs and by National Board of General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Also endorsed by Republican Party 1940 in its platform.

Opposed by : 'National Women's Trade Union League; C.I.O. Auxiliaries; American Association of University Women; National Council of Jewish Women; National League of Women Voters; National Board of Y.W.C.A.; National Council of Catholic Women; National Consumers League; and others.

Additional Women Miss Mary Andersen (Women's Bureau, Department of Labor);
Who opposed it: Congresswoman Mary Norton; Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt; Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt (veteran suffragist); Elinor Herrick; Mother Bloor; Mrs. Mary Rouse of A.F. of L. auxiliaries; Gertrude Lane; Helen Blanshard; Mary Van Kleeck; Grace Hutchins; Mrs. Isobel Walker-Sault; Anita Whitney; and others.

Danger for 1944: G.O.P. are reviving this phony amendment and may shove it through Congress as a bid for the women's votes in 1944. National Women's Party call Republican Party 'the friend of women.' Congressman Pat Cannon of Florida is now circulating a petition to force the amendment out of committee on to floor. The passing of such a law will nullify all progressive labor legislation for women. The Women's Party favors this. They have lobbied with employers, against protective legislation for women, notably in New York and New Jersey. They scorn laws such as mother's pensions, minimum wage,

UNITY FOR PROGRESSIVE ACTION

On December 28, and 29, a convention took place in New York which can decisively influence the fate of the American nation in the coming months and years. The NATIONAL CITIZENS POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE and the INDEPENDENT CITIZENS COMMITTEE OF THE ARTS, SCIENCES AND PROFESSIONS united their forces in a new organization, the PROGRESSIVE CITIZENS OF AMERICA in order, as it was stated in the program of the new organization, "to seek unity among the progressives. It is our endeavor to fight political indifference, for it is a weapon of reaction. We are endeavoring to gather together millions of persons for political action in order to influence national, state and local problems". The program further declared: "We wish to make one viewpoint clear. If the Democratic party serves special interests and betrays the people, it will go under and deserves to go under. For this reason we cannot exclude the possibility of a new political party, the loyalty of which to our goals is inviolable".

This program further demanded the execution of economic requirements as they were formulated in the "Economic Bill of Rights" of President Roosevelt and foreign policy measures which are to guarantee peace. HENRY WALLACE, the former Secretary of Commerce, expressed his opinion that we "have an imitation one-party system today which operates under the mask of a "bi-partisan block".

The conference elected an Executive Committee with JO DAVIDSON and Dr. FRANK KINGDON as Presidents and including personages such as A. F. WHITNEY, President of the Brotherhood of Railway Workers; FIORELLA H. LA GUARDIA, former Mayor of New York; PAUL ROBESON, world-renowned negro baritone; Dr. HARLOW SHAPLEY, physicist, and countless prominent personages.

The organization plans to develop mass activities in the near future in order to carry out its program in various states; its first campaign will be for rent control and a better housing program.

The PROGRESSIVE CITIZENS OF AMERICA welcome the membership of every one who is in agreement with its broad goals* (*Membership fee for the PROGRESSIVE CITIZENS OF AMERICA amounts to $3.00 per year. The address of the organization is 205 East 42nd St., NYC), for it is the goal of this organization to achieve results by joint action.

At the same time that the PCA was working out its wide scale program of action, a meeting of the UNION FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION took place in Washington in the greatest secrecy, a conference at which a program for progressive action was to be worked out, a program, however, which was characterized by the fact that it excluded Communists.

This anti-Communist conference of the UNION FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION, which unfortunately, honest liberals such as MR. WALTER WINCHELL took part in, is playing directly into the hands of all enemies of progressive measures. Just as in Germany before Hitler's coup d'etat, so too in our country reactionaries are able to divert the people from its true interests and from an intensive battle for its rights by injecting the poison of Communist persecution into the progressive masses. The members of the UNION FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION are fallen victims to the maneuvers of reaction, in so far as they are not conscious hirelings. It is to be hoped and assured that the preponderant majority of the American people has learned a lesson from the fate of the USSR and that it fights solely for its own interests. Hope for the people lies in the joint action of the PROGRESSIVE ALLIANCE of America in any form.

National Conference on Problem of Germany

At the Waldorf Astoria on Thursday, March 6th, the newly-organized National Conference on the Problem of Germany drew up a series of resolutions to be submitted to the American delegation at the Moscow Conference and to the United States Government. The group is sponsored by a long list of such distinguished personalities as Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Sumner Welles, Albert Einstein, Jacob Potofsky, Erika Mann and Henry Morgenthau, Jr.

Although every school of thought on the German question was represented among the 80 or so participants in the conference, agreement was reached on all 20 resolutions and the final statement read like a re-enactment of the Yalta and Potsdam Declarations.

In the audience there were supporters of the Morgenthau plan for elimination of all German heavy industry, advocates of a complete reconstruction of Potsdam as well as proponents of an unrestricted reconstruction of the German industrial potential. Despite a difference of opinion on the probable success or failure of the Moscow Conference, the group rejected the pessimistic outlook of some of the participants and called for unity of the Big Four in the spirit of past conferences.

The most spirited discussion of the day was on the resolution for expropriating the Junker estates, a measure called "socialistic" and "un-American" by former Congressman Baldwin and others. The statement was modified to the satisfaction of the group by the specific exclusion of anti-Nazi Junkers from the decree.

Other recommendations called for recognition of the French claims to Alsace and of the new Polish boundaries, limitations on German industry, full and effective denazification, payment of reparations, intensive re-education for democracy, exclusion of Nazi immigrants from the United States and the return of German scientists working for the United States to Germany. A strongly worded resolution complementing the Potsdam Declaration regarding the use of American capital in Germany would bar all Americans with business or industrial connections in Germany from participation in military government or in diplomatic discussions on Germany. John Foster Dulles would be the chief victim of the resolution, it was pointed out.

Although it was informally suggested that the Conference call for a federalist organization of Germany, the participants carefully avoided this very controversial issue. In general, the significance of the meeting and the resolutions passed by the conference lies in the basic agreement of these Americans of varied political opinions on the need for implementation of the principles of the Potsdam Declaration and for continued Big Power unity in the occupation of Germany.

Dear Sir:

Is it permissible to ask if James Roosevelt is definitely affiliated with the Communist Party, or a Yellow Traveller? Having inquired, may I have a prompt answer? Since he is seriously about running for the California Senate in 1954, we, in California, must be forewarned. Since he has purchased a home in Pasadena on San Pasqual, we feel we must know why he sold his Beverly Hills home to buy one here. We must know with whom he is working, if they are subversive.

Also, were there any Communist and, if so who were prominently listed on the Chart of the Midcentury White House Conference, 1950? I must report to the Woman's Civic League of Pasadena, Juvenile Protection Committee, on the Conference, hence my inquiry.

President Truman was Hon. Chairman of the National Committee of 52 Members, Serving as Chairman was Hon. Oscar R. Bowling; vice chairman were Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Dr. Beryainin Spock, M. D. and others.

D C
Melvin A. Glasser was Executive Director. I hope he is not related in any way to Harold Glasser, linked with the Harvey Dexter White case?

Mr. Melvin Glasser is listed in "Proceedings of The Midcentury White House Conference" as a professional social worker and assistant Administrator of Foreign Operations in charge of international activities programs of the American Red Cross.

Will your department furnish me with a list of youth organizations that are Communistic in Pasadena and Los Angeles? Angeles?

I am asking not out of idle curiosity, but because we, of the Woman's Civic League and Republican Club, League of Women Voters, etc. must be informed and alerted.

Very truly yours,

FROM HIGLER TO LILIENTHAL

The HIGLER case before the Thomas-Rankin Committee was the signal for the persecution of everything progressive in the American people. In GEORGE HIGLER they are trying to find Henry Wallace, Eleanor Roosevelt, the liberal movement, the New Dealers, such as, for example, Lilienthal—in brief, all that is progressive. This is the frontal attack against the entire American people; it is a fight against democracy in Europe and the Soviet Union.

This fight, likewise, finds its expression in the hearing of the Senate Committee in the Lilienthal case. The fight against Lilienthal was led by the most reactionary groups in Congress—Republicans and Democrats—in arm under the eagle of the eighty-year old Senator McKellar from Tennessee, who cannot pardon Lilienthal for not supporting the corrupt methods of a Southern Democratic politician. Lilienthal, as the Director of the Tennessee Valley Authority, did not hire people who were proteges of Mr. McKellar but, as an honest Director of a large federal concern, he hired his personnel according to their capabilities.

This was a mortal sin in the eyes of Senator McKellar. Such mortal sins could only be committed by Communists. For this reason, Lilienthal is characterized as a Communist and "fellow traveller". Then, honorable Senators such as McKellar, work with corrupt witnesses, falsified letters, lies and calumnies. There is no means bad enough to drag honorable progressive persons such as Lilienthal into the gutter.

For this reason, fight against the "Un-American Thomas-Rankin Committee". For this reason, fight against reactionaries as in Rankin, Patmill Thomas, McKellar, etc. These enemies of the people do not belong in Congress.

The vote of the Senate Committee confided Lilienthal with an 8 to 1 vote. The dissenting vote was that of Senator Bricker from Ohio who did not dare to vote against the order of Taft, the dictator of the G. O. P. in the Senate.

CONFIDENTIAL TECHNICAL INFORMANTS

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to my telephone call to the Bureau today wherein I explained to Mr. MUMFORD the fact, that my confidential contacts at [REDACTED] have advised me that they will, in the future, no longer cooperate in supplying confidential informants of a technical nature. It is expected that the cooperation which has existed uninterruptedly for [REDACTED] will terminate within two weeks.

Within the past few weeks, this office has re-examined its confidential informants of this type with great care and has terminated the services of all except those considered to be of greatest value. For the Bureau's information I am setting forth in this letter a list of the informants still retained, together with brief data as to the value of each. The list will be followed with my plan for future operations in this field.

Through this informant it is known, that the present office staff and officials at the NMU office are mostly active CPA members. The NMU policy in Philadelphia adheres closely to the CPA line on all political matters. The CPA has recently formed a Club, known as the John Paul Jones Club, the members of which are all seamen and are all believed to be members of the

The informant has furnished positive proof of the close inter-relation of the officials of the School and the Headquarters of the CPA. The School is controlled completely by the CPA functionaries in Philadelphia and serves as the principal propaganda medium for the CPA; especially in its efforts to reach non-Party members. Much of the School's activities and courses are directed toward shop stewards and other persons active in Labor Unions. The informant has in the past, enabled this office to keep the Bureau advised from day to day as to the efforts of the functionaries of the School and the CPA to induce nationally prominent figures, such as Mrs. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, Congresswoman HELLER GALLAGHER, DOUGLAS and a number of senators and congressmen to speak on behalf of the School in its fund-raising banquet in the Spring of 1945. It is known that the efforts of the School and the CPA to raise funds have been only partially successful and it is believed likely that further efforts will be made in the future to enlist the assistance or support of prominent people to raise money for the School. Current information regarding activities of this sort can be obtained only through this informant.

Dear Sir:

Confidential informants of the Cleveland Field Division advised on June 8, 1945 that a meeting of the Enlarged Cuyahoga County Central Committee would be held Friday, June 8, at 7:30 P.M. in the Assembly Room of the Hotel Hollenden, Cleveland, Ohio. JOHN WILLIAMSON, National CPA Secretary, was announced as the guest speaker, and it was announced that he would speak on the resolution of the National Board of the CPA which was published in the "Daily Worker" of Monday, June 4. A mimeographed announcement of this meeting was sent out over the signatures of ARNOLD JOHNSON, State CPA President, and BEA SACHS, County CPA Secretary. This announcement stated that each person attending was urged to read the recent article by JACQUES DUCLOS in preparation for the discussion at the meeting.

A physical surveillance was maintained on this meeting by Special Agents [redacted] and [redacted] of the Cleveland Field Division, and they were able to hear everything said.

Introductory remarks were made by ARNOLD SAMUEL JOHNSON which dealt mainly with the need for increasing the "Daily Worker" subscription list and supporting the present CPA fund drive. He also mentioned that a number of "Comrades" were present from outside Cleveland and named Columbus, Ohio Valley, Akron, and Canton as having representatives at this meeting. JOHNSON stated that the resolution itself would not be read since it was expected that all those present had previously read it, but that there would be a period of discussion on the resolution from the floor and then JOHN WILLIAMSON would undertake to explain the resolution. JOHNSON stated that he himself supported the resolution as one of the leaders who had made the mistakes pointed out by this resolution.

MAX LOWELL WALL (Delegate State Committee CPA of Ohio) spoke from the floor and stated that he had examined Browder's book "Teheran" and other Browder writings in detail since Browder was charged with revisionism, and had not found anything to support such charges. He defined revisionism as changing the basic purpose of Communism, which is the changing of capitalism into socialism. WALL claimed that Browder's policy of instituting a period of collaboration between capitalists and Communists was a necessary policy in order to help the socialist portion of the world led by the Soviet Union. He stated it was necessary not only during the war with Germany, but was still necessary during the present war. WALL said he did not believe the ideological state of the American mind based on property ownership would permit the CPA to hope for socialism in the immediate postwar period, but he saw no reason for the CPA to "beat our breasts and say I sinned" at every opportunity.

PETER CHAUNT (Delegate State Committee CPA of Ohio) was the next speaker, and stated that he was in favor of the first five points of the resolution, but that only by fighting could the chains of the United States and British imperialism be broken. He severely criticized Browder for cooperating with the class enemy.

The next speaker was a woman called Comrade SHNEIDER by JOHNSON. She spoke in favor of the resolution saying that the Teheran and Yalta agreements and the policies espoused by Eleanor Roosevelt were being broken every day by our government. She further added that the CPA must not take it for granted that President Truman would follow President Roosevelt's policies since in many cases he had failed to do so.

The next speaker, unknown, said that Browder's policy of cooperation with capital had helped materially to win the war, but had been overemphasized. He then said that Browder should not be blamed for the dissolution of the Communist Party as history showed that Communist organizations often dissolved when the situation necessitated it. He mentioned the dissolution of the First and Third Internationales as examples. This speaker said the Communist Party was dissolved primarily to gain national unity, and was just a change in name anyway. This speaker stated that conditions were not ripe for socialism in the United States and were materially different from the conditions in France where DUCLOS wrote his article. He ended with the statement that the CPA must never lose sight of its basic aim of the abolition of capitalism and the establishment of socialism.

[REDACTED] (reported CPA member) spoke in favor of the resolution. She stated that since the war in Europe was over management in a great many plants had been getting tougher with the workers and some trade unions were getting tired of it. She said that political pressure

In response to an invitation for additional material on the oppression of the American Negro from the Secretariat of the United Nations' Commission on Human Rights, Revels Cayton, Executive Secretary of the National Negro Congress, which organization has petitioned the United Nations for an investigation into the plight of 13 million Negro citizens, announced today that a series of nation-wide People's Tribunals will be held throughout the country to take additional testimony regarding current acts of oppression...in cooperation with all similarly interested groups.

Mr. Cayton who is the grandson of the late United States Senator, Hiram Revels of Mississippi, first Negro to serve in that capacity, also made public the summary record of the National Negro Congress meeting on June 6th between Petrus J. Schmidt, Secretary, Commission on Human Rights and representatives of the National Negro Congress, Dr. Max Yergan, President; Revels Cayton, Executive Secretary; Charles A. Collins, Vice-President and Dr. Herbert Aptheker, Executive Board Member.

The text of the summary record follows:

"Summary record of the presentation of a petition by Dr. Max Yergan, President, National Negro Congress.

"The presentation of the petition, concerning decisions taken by the National Negro Congress, took place at Hunter College, New York City, on Thursday, 6 June, 1946.

"Present for the United Nations Secretariat: Mr. Petrus J. Schmidt, Secretary Commission on Human Rights; Mr. Lyman G. White, in charge of Arrangements for Consultation with non-governmental organizations; Mr. Lee Gordonker, representative, Press Section.

"Present for the National Negro Congress: Dr. Max Yergan, President, National Negro Congress; Mr. Revels Cayton, Executive Secretary; Mr. Charles Collins, Vice President; Dr. Herbert Aptheker, Member of Executive Board; Mr. Lawrence Burnett, Press Representative.

"Mr. Schmidt, receiving Dr. Max Yergan, stated that the Secretary General had asked him, as Secretary of the Commission on Human Rights, to accept the document presented by the National Negro Congress. He expressed willingness to answer any questions that Dr. Yergan or his colleagues would like to put to him.

"Dr. Yergan expressed his appreciation to the Secretary General for receiving the document. This document is the unanimous expression from the recent convention of the National Negro Congress, attended by about 1,000 delegates, and convened in Detroit from May 30 to June 2. Dr. Yergan asked whether it would be possible to give him some indication as to procedure that would be followed.

"Mr. Schmidt replied that the Council had not yet taken any definite decision as to the relations with non-governmental organizations. He pointed out, however, that the recommendations of the Commission on Human Rights contained certain references to non-governmental organizations, and those recommendations have now been sent to the Economic and Social Council for decision. The report of the Commission will be discussed in the course of the next week by a special committee. The Council has decided, the Commission on Human Rights will know what its will be.

Rights will know what its future work will be.

"Mr. White explained that the Economic and Social Council has appointed a Committee for Consultation with non-governmental Organizations. The proposals and recommendations of this Committee will be considered by the Council during its present session, and when the Council has made its decision, we shall know what is to be done about arrangements. Any organization that is interested in consultation could write to us, and when such letters are received, a confirmation will be sent, enclosing a form which the organization is asked to fill out, so that the essential facts are available.

"Mr. Schmidt informed Dr. Yergan that the document would be included in the list of communications for the Commission on Human Rights. A copy will also be sent to the Chairman, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, so that she will know the contents and will be able to deal with it when any Commission member wants to be informed about it.

"Dr. Yergan expressed the hope that action on the document would be taken as soon as is reasonably possible. Finally, he stated that the National Negro Congress was willing to supply the United Nations with all further material or further representation which they might wish to receive.

"Mr. Schmidt pointed out to Dr. Yergan that he need not wait for any request to send in material, as all material on any subject dealing with human rights will be gladly received at any time.

The appointment of Mrs. Dorothy K. Funn, formerly Washington Legislative Editor of the National Negro Congress to the new post of Director of the UN Petition Campaign was announced by Dr. Yergan for the National Board of the NNC.

Mrs. Funn who was recently elected to the National Board at the Detroit Convention announced that thousands of petitions are now in the hands of the printer and that a nation-wide drive will be shortly inaugurated to obtain several million individual signatures to be added to the original UN petition now before the Social and Economic Council for action.

Mrs. Funn urged all individuals as well as church, trade union, educational, fraternal and community groups to communicate with her at once regarding the number of petitions for which they can be responsible for circulation for individual signatures.

"This is an opportunity of world-wide importance," Mrs. Funn declared, "aimed at making the United Nations and its Economic and Social Council a genuine people's instrument, capable of responding to the will of democratic people everywhere."

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

ROMULO BETANCOURT returned to Washington on or about February 23, 1950 from Havana, Cuba and on February 25, 1950 appeared before Fact Finding Committee of O.A.S., after which he gave out a press release to effect he had held up view of Accion Democratica Party of Venezuela by refusing itself the remedy of armed expeditions from outside to destroy dictatorial Governments. One informant of unknown reliability has expressed opinion BETANCOURT controls and governs Caribbean Legion; that BETANCOURT's right-hand men in United States are VALMORE RODRIGUEZ of New York City and one JUAN PABLO PEREZ ALFONSO, Minister of Economics during BETANCOURT Government who now resides in Washington; that PEREZ ALFONSO took advice from Soviet Ambassador re oil matters rather than from United States. BETANCOURT departed United States April 21, 1950 for Havana, Cuba to attend a Congress of Democracy of which BETANCOURT, JUAN BOSCH, GONZALO BARRIOS and President PRIO SOCARRROS of Cuba are reported to be prime backers. BETANCOURT has advised informants that this Congress will be attended by a number of prominent United States citizens, as well as exiles from various South and Central American countries and officials from others. According to one informant, [REDACTED]

PROPERTY OF FBI - This confidential report and its contents are loaned to you by the FBI and are not to be distributed outside of agency to which loaned.

T-11 stated that BETANCOURT's right-hand men in the United States are VALMORE RODRIGUEZ, whom he stated is now in New York City, and PEREZ ALFONZO, previously described.

T-11 did not possess any information concerning the alleged attempts of BETANCOURT to purchase and smuggle arms and munitions to Venezuela for the purpose of overthrowing the present Military Junta.

With reference to PEREZ ALFONZO, T-4 has advised that JUAN PABLO PEREZ ALFONZO was Minister of the Treasury in the Gallegos Cabinet and left Venezuela for Miami on June 29, 1949, as a Venezuelan exile. T-9 has advised that PEREZ ALFONZO, who resides in Washington, is presently writing a book; that he spends considerable time visiting law courts and law schools because of his professional background as a Venezuelan lawyer. T-9 said that PEREZ ALFONZO has indicated that he intends to remain in the United States. It will be indicated hereinafter in this report that PEREZ ALFONZO is an associate of BETANCOURT.

T-4 has received information which T-4 considered to be fairly reliable and as possibly true, as follows:

"ROMULO BETANCOURT, who is in the United States and is expected to remain for at least a month, is continuing his efforts to organize his 'Congreso Centinental en Defensa de la Democracia', also known as the 'Congress of Intellectuals.' His objective is to bring together all groups which are in opposition to Franco in order to present as strong a protest as possible against Franco and the recent policy statement of the U. S. Secretary of State on Spain. BETANCOURT hopes to obtain the support of Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT for the Congress.

"In addition to the anti-Franco aspects of the organization, BETANCOURT hopes to create strong public opinion in the United States and Latin America for permitting all exiles on the American continent to return to their respective countries. However, exiles from countries other than Venezuela suspect that BETANCOURT is working only for himself and they have little faith in the movement.

"JUAN RODRIGUEZ, Dominican revolutionary leader, was asked by BETANCOURT to join the movement. RODRIGUEZ, fearful that the Congress will have some Communist elements in it, is waiting to make his decision until he is assured that Communists will not be permitted to participate.

T-16 of known reliability has advised that LEONCIO DORTA E., 138 71st Street, Bayridge, Brooklyn, New York, was in touch with BETANCOURT in the early part of March and April, 1950. T-16 has advised that LEONCIO DORTA E. BEVERIA was an A.D. leader who left Venezuela June 30, 1949 for New York City as a Venezuelan exile. It appears that this individual may be identical to LEONCIO DORTA E. described above.

T-17 of known reliability ascertained that on January 21, 1950, one "HELENITA" of Vera Cruz (Mexico) advised BETANCOURT that she was leaving that day and that BETANCOURT should reclaim the New Orleans ticket. It appears that this may be the sister, or sister-in-law of BETANCOURT whom he is reported to have met at New Orleans enroute to Havana.

[redacted] of known reliability has advised that BETANCOURT while at Havana, Cuba, on February 6th advised his wife that a particular draft (money draft) had not yet arrived.

[redacted] has ascertained that on March 3, 1950, individuals described as ANTONIO, RAUL, OLAVARRIA, CARLOS and ANDRES advised BETANCOURT that they had just arrived at a hotel on the Colombian border; that NASS was arranging for a visa and that others were to follow on Saturday and that they expected to be in Costa Rica the next day. It appears that NASS is undoubtedly identical to RAUL NASS, who has been previously described as the former secretary to President GILLES. It appears that the individuals described as ANTONIO, RAUL, OLAVARRIA, CARLOS and ANDRES may be identical to some of the persons mentioned by BETANCOURT in his press release following his appearance before the OAS as previously described.

[redacted] learned that on March 11, 1950, one [redacted] informed T-19 of known reliability that he had reliable knowledge to the effect that international Communist agents headed by ROAULO BETANCOURT had organized a Congress of supposed exiles, making this Congress appear as anti-Communist in order to win over North American opinion and to gain an audience with Mrs. ROOSEVELT. RODRIGUEZ also stated that according to instructions of LAURENTE BERIA, which were transmitted to BETANCOURT by one OBERG on his recent trip to Havana and Mexico, the congress of supposed exiles must advocate peace with Russia and allow Soviet agents, selected specifically for these new measures, to succeed in infiltration on a permanent basis of various American countries. RODRIGUEZ stated that as a friend of the United States and as one who is in favor of inter-American unity, he condemned the despicable activities of these Communist agents and said that he would view with horror Mrs. ROOSEVELT's becoming involved with elements of the above described breed in instances which could occasion serious harm to all America. [redacted] possessed no information concerning the reliability, qualifications and background of [redacted] nor concerning the accuracy of his statement.

It is noted that the April 18, 1950, issue of "NOTICIAS" published by the Council for Inter-American Cooperation, 111 Broadway, New York City, carried an article on page five which reads as follows:

"ECONOMIC, POLITICAL, SOCIAL"

"General:"

"Unification of democratic forces in 21 American republics 'to arouse public opinion to defense of democratic ideals, civil and political liberties' is purpose of Inter-American Conference for Democracy and Freedom opening in Havana May 12, to which 150 representatives of govt. labor, education and professions from the republics will be invited. Conference will spotlight increasing abridgment of civil liberties in Peru, Colombia, Venezuela, and Argentina; will consider how to strengthen democracy in the Americas, role of this hemisphere in maintaining world peace, etc. Sponsors include Mrs. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, AFL & CIO presidents, Cuba's Pres. PRIO and Venezuela's ex-Pres. BETANCOURT. T,H/18"

MEMORANDUM FOR THE BUREAU:

Re: [REDACTED]

- Informant:

ESPIONAGE

Miss [REDACTED] appeared at the office on July 10, 1940, and was interviewed by Special Agent (A) [REDACTED]

At the time of the interview Miss [REDACTED] had in her possession two photographs of [REDACTED] a book entitled "Sacred Treasures of Nara" and several personal letters of Mrs. [REDACTED] who is deceased. Miss [REDACTED] was the private nurse of Mrs. [REDACTED] for two years' prior to the latter's death and assisted Mr. [REDACTED] in going through the personal belongings of Mrs. [REDACTED] among which were several letters of a personal nature and two photographs. It appears that Mrs. [REDACTED] was very wealthy and made a practice of lending money to students who were anxious to complete a college education. These students would subsequently correspond with Mrs. [REDACTED] and it is these letters which were turned over to this office. These letters will not be quoted as they are of a personal nature and have no bearing on the facts at issue. This fact was not known until subsequent to Miss [REDACTED] departure, who insisted that they indicated that [REDACTED] was a "spy" in this country for the [REDACTED] Government.

[REDACTED]

Miss [REDACTED] informed that on one occasion, after she became suspicious of [REDACTED] she took the liberty of examining the handbag of [REDACTED] when the latter was visiting Mrs. [REDACTED] and according to Miss [REDACTED] the bag contained a camera and a small revolver. Miss [REDACTED] further alleges that [REDACTED] was arrested

[REDACTED]

She is said to have telephoned someone at the Morgan Bank, New York, and was released the following morning, when she immediately took a plane and flew to Washington, D. C. After an unsuccessful attempt to enter the White House, [REDACTED] is alleged to have called on the Japanese Embassy and obtained an automobile with the Emblem thereon and to have gained entrance to the White House and had tea with Mrs. Roosevelt. When last heard from, [REDACTED] was in Texas in 1939 on a good will Japanese Youth Movement in or near Durango.

[REDACTED]

Inasmuch as no specific instance of a violation of the espionage statute was pointed out by [REDACTED] the photograph, pamphlet, and letters will be retained in the Philadelphia Office files for possible future use, and no investigation will be conducted by this office.

It was noted that an item appeared in the Washington Daily News dated Monday, April 24, 1944, in the column entitled, "My Day", that Mrs. ROBERT MAGIDOFF, the Russian wife of the American NBC correspondent in Moscow, had luncheon on April 21, 1944, with Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT, together with Mrs. EDWARD MACAULEY, Mrs. FRANK FOLK, and Mrs. RICHARD BISSEL, new Director of Volunteers for the Red Cross. This item stated that Mrs. MAGIDOFF has been all over the United States speaking for Russian War Relief, that she has addressed small audiences, labor audiences, Rotary Clubs, groups of young people, and women's clubs, and that her English is remarkably good, with just enough foreign accent and construction to keep people's interest fixed on what she says, in order to be sure that one has grasped her meaning. This article, among other things, stated that Mrs. MAGIDOFF said that Russian teaching from school days on makes people conscious that they have to think of other people; they are taught that their own interests, as individuals, are not of paramount importance but that their neighbors must be considered.]]

Dear Sir:

There is enclosed herewith the report of Special Agent [REDACTED] dated May 2, 1946, in which you will note that there is considerable information relative to prominent American figures such as CLAUDE PEPPER, HAROLD ICKES, JOSEPH DAVIES, and others.

LOUISE BRANSTEN'S activity regarding these individuals was in an attempt to obtain them as speakers for the American Russian Institute in San Francisco. However, in view of their prominence and the fact that the information relative to them was obtained from technical sources, the attention of the Bureau is being directed to this in order that care may be maintained in the dissemination of any information in this report.

Institute in San Francisco for a conference which was to be held. Subject advised that this mass meeting in San Francisco should be a very important thing inasmuch as nothing like it had been held in San Francisco for many years and that many people who were interested in promoting Soviet American friendship in California would be in attendance. She said that the meeting was to be held in the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco which holds 9,000 people and that the tentative date had been set for March 13, 1946. She said that some very good Hollywood talent would take part in this meeting and that plans were being drawn up for another meeting in Los Angeles. She mentioned that the American Russian Institute in San Francisco had written to WALLACE, DAVIES and PEPPER attempting to interest them as speakers but had not heard from any of them.

On February 1, 1946, according to Confidential Informant [redacted] subject conferred with ADOLPH COOPER at which time she advised him she had just received a telegram from HOLLAND ROBERTS of the American Russian Institute in San Francisco advising her to get in touch with COOPER and to tell him that he should make arrangements to come to San Francisco for an interview for a job with the American Russian Institute. COOPER advised that he would not be able to do this but would write to Dr. HOLLAND ROBERTS concerning the matter.

On February 12, 1946, according to Informant [redacted] subject made a tentative luncheon date with BETTY GARNETT, but at the same time informed BETTY that the luncheon engagement which was made for February 19th might have to be cancelled in the event that she had to go to Washington, D. C. to see about a speaker for the west coast.

On February 18, 1946, [redacted] subject advised that she had been in touch with Major WHITE of the Speakers Bureau, Pentagon Building, Washington, D. C., and had attempted to get WHITE to make arrangements for obtaining General EISENHOWER as a speaker on Soviet relations at a large rally to be held in San Francisco. According to the subject, WHITE had advised her that it was out of the question since General EISENHOWER had a very light schedule and was not making any public speeches. According to the subject, WHITE then suggested that she might be interested in some other prominent Army figure such as General STIDWELL. Subject advised that she was going to write a letter to WHITE concerning this.

[redacted], on February 28, 1946 subject was in touch with SOL SILVERMAN relative to subject's activities in attempting to obtain a speaker for the American Russian Institute in San Francisco. Subject informed SILVERMAN that she was going to see Mrs.

ELEANOR ROOSEVELT on the following day and would then send a telegram to San Francisco as to the results of her interview with Mrs. ROOSEVELT.

Confidential Informant [redacted] advised that on March 5, 1946 subject contacted Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT at which time she invited Mrs. ROOSEVELT to speak at the American Russian Institute in San Francisco, but Mrs. ROOSEVELT declined. Accordingly, subject sent a telegram, [redacted] to SOL SILVERMAN, 111 Sutter Street, San Francisco, in which she advised that Mrs. ROOSEVELT would not be able to speak at the American Russian Institute and that she would attempt to see ICKES and PEPPER in Washington, D. C. on the following Wednesday. She also urged that HOLLAND ROBERTS telephone JOSEPH DAVIES and extend him an invitation.

On March 7, 1946, [redacted] subject was in touch with Mr. C. R. BALDWIN of the Political Action Committee in New York City, and advised him that her attempts to reach ICKES on the preceding day had met with negative results. Subject also informed him that she was going to Washington and would attempt to see PEPPER and probably KILGORE. BALDWIN was also requested by BALDWIN to see HELEN GILMAN DOUGLASS. Subject at that time advised him she would be in Washington, D. C. on March 12, 1946 and would return on the following day.

On March 7, 1946, [redacted] subject advised an unknown woman that she had an appointment with ICKES on that date.

On the same date she conferred with ABBOTT SIMON, at which time she explained to him the need of the American Russian Institute in San Francisco obtaining a prominent speaker and SIMON suggested PEPPER and WALLACE. Subject also informed him that she had made arrangements to see Secretary of Agriculture WALLACE at the Political Action Committee on that evening.

On March 9, 1946 subject informed SOL SILVERMAN that Senator PEPPER desired his plane fare and $500 before he would be able to speak at the ARI rally. Subject informed him that she was going to Washington on the following Wednesday.

Subject informed LIOTEL BERRIN on March 12, 1946 that while in Washington she would visit PEPPER, ICKES, DAVIES, and possibly the Russian Embassy. However, later on the same day she received information to the effect that ICKES was in New York City and consequently, [redacted], she cancelled her Washington trip after learning that she probably would not be able to see JOSEPH DAVIES while in Washington either.

an Allied country in Europe, wish to return to live easily on the blood of the poor innocent people of Europe. It is understood that the Slavs do not want to live under such conditions any more. They want the liberty and protection of the Great Allied governments, especially of the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. The American people know or should at least know that in Russia we have our best friend and the best protector of democracy in the world, but of this many people in the United States are yet to be convinced so that our sons and the sons of our sons will not have to again die by the millions in foreign lands, as they have in the first and second world wars.

"It is up to the masses of the people in this country to prevent a third world war so that our sons may not have died in vain. Also, that some who profited by the war, should understand that their hopes of a third world war will not be realized. Accordingly, I appeal to you, millions of brother Americans of Slavic descent, to do your part that your officers perform sincere work among our American people so that the people may understand that every one of us, especially those who lost their dear and beloved ones in this war must do their duty to prevent the third world war. We must know that the kind of propaganda spread by the United Press, is dangerous and would eventually cause a break among the allied governments and lead to a third world war.

"That should not happen and we must prevent it with all our energy."

Three persons associated with the Highlander Folk School, a directing committee almost from the start of the school as well as time, are MILE NORTON, JAMES DOHEROSHI, and ELIZABETH ANN HARRIS (better known as ZILLAHARRIS). All three of these persons have been active in nearly every Communist front organization in the South in the past few years. Affidavits in Knoxville file 61-12 state that Communism is taught at the Highlander Folk School and that persons attending the school have been asked to join the Young Communist League by members of the directing personnel. Communist books and publications are used in the instruction at the school and the hammer and sickle emblem is prominently displayed in the school. Students and faculty of the Highlander Folk School have participated in many violent strikes in East Tennessee, and have taken up strife in Grundy County, in which county the school is located, in organizing the WPA workers and participating in local politics.

An organization known as the "Grundy County Citizens' League," composed of substantial citizens of Grundy County, is the enemy of the Highlander Folk School, and is presently seeking recognition of the school charter by state legal action.

The school is financed by contributions from Communist front organizations, liberal and labor groups, and prominent persons including Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT, who has stated that the school has been investigated and found it to be free from Communist influence.

Sessions of the school consist of four to five sessions a year, and a number of sessions are held each year, with a different subject at each session. Students are principally negroes who travel to Highlander by their locals. Although the school state that it is endorsed by all labor groups, the principal support seems to come from C. I. O. Unions. JOHN L. LEWIS has publicly endorsed the school.

Members of the Highlander Folk School faculty have attended meetings of the Communist Party at Chattanooga, Tennessee. Highlander Folk School was mentioned at Communist meetings in Atlanta as the "best thing we have in the South." (61-12)

DATE: April 5, 1950

FROM : GUY HOTIEL, SAC, Washington Field

SUBJECT: AMERICANS FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION, INFORMATION CONCERNING

On March 22, 1950 [REDACTED] was interviewed concerning the National Civil Liberties Clearing House. He had previously advised telephonically that he had some information concerning this organization. In addition to the information concerning the National Civil Liberties Clearing House which is being furnished to the Bureau in a separate letter, [REDACTED] furnished the following information concerning Americans for Democratic Action:

[REDACTED] stated that he was employed in the [REDACTED] on a part-time basis. He said that he was concerned about whether ADA was a subversive organization. [REDACTED] was advised that it would not be possible to furnish such information, and he said that he was concerned about it because he did not wish to risk being associated with the organization if it were subversive in nature.

[REDACTED] a student at [REDACTED] who had previously spent his service in the Army, asserted that he did not believe ADA was as harmless or innocuous as it seemed. He said that he could not cite any specific instances or reasons for that statement except that the tone of the conversation in the office was such that he had reason to be suspicious of it. He asserted that SEYMOUR REISIN, listed on an ADA Study Trips Abroad pamphlet as a Student for Democratic Action, talked glibly of Marxism and other topics which [REDACTED] associated with the followers of Communism. He said that the general tenor of conversation in the office was highly critical of the F.E.I. He also said that conversation was generally pro Soviet.

When interviewed, [REDACTED] brought with him a list of participants in ADA Study Trips Abroad in the Summer of 1949, list of those who had inquired about trips being conducted for 1950, and literature put out by ADA Study Trips Abroad concerning these 1950 trips. In addition he brought a copy of a letter which he said he had obtained for his own information, because this through the Daily Worker and the Communist Party, USA, District [REDACTED]

On January 9, 1947, [REDACTED]
UNITED PEOPLES ACTION COMMITTEE, which was held at [REDACTED]
North Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. ARTHUR [REDACTED] as chairman and LILLIAN TAYLOR, secretary, read the minutes of the [REDACTED] meeting.

FAUSET mainly discussed what he termed the split between Progressives in this country, stating that many well-known persons such as Mrs. ROOSEVELT, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, JR., and others had formed a new committee, supposedly for the purpose of curing the Progressive Movement and to establish a committee in which no one would not be identified such as they are now in the PAC. He stated that the newly established committee with the exception of Mrs. ROOSEVELT as its only member in the United States today there is a definite trend to label anyone who for equal justice or equal opportunity, a Communist. He stated that many of this new committee have identified themselves as Liberals, but not from the category of Progressives or Communists.

FAUSET stated that URAC and other minorities are taking actions of this new committee and the merger of the National Action Committee and the I. C. C. so that they can determine who they will want to be identified with, that is, whether the newly established committee will line up with the Conservatives in order to escape the Communist stigma or whether they will establish a truly liberal front in this country.

FAUSET explained that today a Liberal is one who fights for labor and minorities, but many times supports the policies of Reactionaries. They associate themselves with the so-called Liberals only for the purpose of confusing the public as to where they stand and keep themselves from being labeled as Communists. On the other hand, there are persons who are truly attempting to do a good job for all the people, but are afraid of being called Communists, therefore, they call themselves Liberals and, of course, the Communists are those whom the critics claim are like STALIN. FAUSET added that in substance, there are few real Communists in America.

After FAUSET's remarks, the matter was discussed and the group decided that UNITED PEOPLES ACTION COMMITTEE would decide later and that of the newly established groups they would become associated with.

Cruise of the Batory to the USSR

The Polish ship Batory returned to LeHavre on September 8 from its cruise to the Soviet Union with some 760 French tourists.

In a report dated September 30, 1955, [redacted] advised that the spectacular aspect of the Soviet gesture in permitting what was, for the Soviet Union, such a mass influx of Western tourists was not lost on the French press. Most of the Paris dailies and several magazines sent correspondents with the group, and the correspondents not only faithfully filed daily despatches during the trip, but proceeded to write a series of lengthy articles upon their return. Thus L'Humanite sang daily praises of the paradise that socialism had wrought, while Le Monde spoke of full employment in the Soviet Union and describing such things as rest homes and housing for plant workers in terms implying that all workers enjoyed these benefits. u

Reaction to the EMMETT LOUIS TILL Case

According to [redacted] the American Embassy at Paris was the recipient during September 1955 of a number of letters concerning the acquittal of the two men tried in the TILL case. Of the letters received, most were from individuals, some of whom were obvious crackpots, but others of whom were obviously voicing sincere indignation. The Secours Populaire Francais, a Communist front organization, sent in the type of letter that could be expected from it. The most serious letter, however, was from the Ligue Internationale Contre le Racisme et l'antisemitisme (L.I.R.A.). Although L.I.R.A. lists such people as PIERRE JOT, PAUL ROSESON and JEAN-PAUL SARTRE among the members of its honor committee, its president, BERTHOLD KLOACHE, is strongly anti-Communist, and the majority of its honor committee is made up of such figures as VINCENT AURIOL, the ACADEMIE, FRANCOIS AURIAC, PIERRE MENDES-FRANCE, Mrs. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT, MAURICE CHEURANN, and IGNAZIO SILONE. u

Anti France

The press gave wide coverage to the TILL case, vociferously condemning the verdict. This was true not only of L'Humanite and Liberation, but of the entire press, right wing and left wing alike. L'Humanite, September 27, 1955, described the Mississippi trial "a miscarriage of justice. . ."

RE: AMERICAN SLAV CONGRESS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Enclosed herewith are the original and two copies of a log in which Confidential Informant [redacted], whose identity is known to the Bureau, advised the New York Field Division of a conference which took place March 5, 1946 between [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

The Informant advised that the first part of the conference was devoted to a discussion of the approaching testimonial dinner being sponsored by the AMERICAN SLAV CONGRESS for LEON ZIZICKI, President of the AMERICAN SLAV CONGRESS, and ZLATO BALOKOVIC. The latter part of the conference was devoted to the discussion of sending material to Mrs. MOSKOWITZ regarding a General DENIKEN (phonetic). According to the Informant, [redacted] made the following statement:

"Maybe that will strengthen the move to kick out this guy from the U.S."

██████████ then stated that he was going to send Mrs. ROOSEVELT some other things and ██████████ indicated that he would not have what he wanted, but would get in touch with the Russians and get it from them.

It is to be noted that General ALEXIS IVANOVITCH DENIKIN, former commander of the Ukrainian White Russian Army in the October, 1917 Revolution in Russia, entered the United States on December 7, 1945 aboard the SS QUEEN ELIZABETH. Since that time there has been a campaign on the part of the COMMUNIST PARTY to have him ousted from this country. In the "Daily Worker" of February 25, 1946, there appeared an article entitled, "'Forward' Defends Killer Denikin", in which the "Jewish Daily Forward" is attacked for defending General DENIKIN.

Yeah, isn't it awful this situation with GM in Detroit?
That's right.

I think the strategy was not too good there.
Yeah.

Someone must have made originally quite a mistake.
Well this Reuther guy.

Uh, huh..
Is acting in a disrupting manner.

Really?
Sure for a long time.

Everybody thought that he was an able man.
No, we knew him for a long time.

Really?
Yeah.

Isn't that bad luck.
On the outside he looks alright, but he's always acting like that.

For heavens sake. Listen, wasn't (inaud.). a marvelous experience.
It was very good. You were swell at the end there by offering, suggesting that the Ugdavs won't mind, that was very good.

Because really the most amazing thing about statesmen, they never think it's interesting. They always try to complicate everything.
Yeah,

We're just as part of the allied people as anybody else.
That's right.

I mean if England has got a right to be there why shouldn't we.
You see in today's Times and Tribune have behaved as if they have won the war, not Yugoslavia.
Yeah, no I haven't read it yet.

Yesterday, they're wanting to be on the commission that is going to examine the conditions and in exchange they're willing to consent that the Yugoslavs also permitted to go on the Italian side, that's fantastic.
Yeah.

I tell you really it's just unbelievable.
That's right, I think it was good that we opinioned Mrs. Roosevelt concretely to inquire about a visit to General Deniken.

Not only that, she wrote to Joyce and me, when we had been reserved before, whenever there's something let me know, you see. That's very good, maybe that will strengthen the move to kick out this guy from the U.S.

Yes, can you write out some sort of memorandum on that? Yeah.

Because I'm going to send her also some other things today. I don't have the day, I'll have to get in touch with the Russians and get it from them.

Alright, but could you get in touch with them right off the bat and ask them to do it, you think it's possible, then we can wait, because I don't think it's good (inaud.). Uh, huh.

I mean you've got to be very careful. Now, what kind of degree you use, you know. Yeah.

And there are two or three things in today's Times that I also want to send her and so it would be good to put all the things together you see. Uh, huh, I'll try to get it. I don't know how soon I'll be able to.

Just ask them to hurry up. I mean this is a good opportunity and we shouldn't waste time. Uh, huh.

Listen, also we've got to be very careful about one thing, about setting arrangement on the days. We've got to be present as a massedonian dinner there a big mistake has been made by Herbert however, for example, General Stoich (ph.) was commanding general, but in the (inaud.) since he's not a member yet of the recognised government, you see the first in the diplomatic (inaud.) was Macyado (ph.). That's right.

He should have sat on the right side. Uh, huh.

You see, and then or eally Mrs. Semir (ph.). Wasn't she in the center there?

No, on the center is only the chairman you see and from that center you arrange your other seating arrangements and I think probably.... They didn't know any better I guess.

at Detroit, Michigan, entitled "American Slav Congress".

Report of [REDACTED], dated June 13, 1946,
at Chicago, Illinois, entitled "American Slav Congress".

Report of [REDACTED] dated June 30, 1946,
at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, entitled "American Slav Congress".

These reports reveal the extent of Communist participation and influence in the Congress and show the ideological propaganda to which those adhering to the Congress are exposed through the talks and lectures of its officers, especially those of its president, Lee Krayeki.

You will note references in the attached reports to a congress being planned by the subject organization for the latter part of September in New York City. Looking toward this a meeting of some 30 members of the National Committee was held in Cleveland, Ohio, on July 27, and 28, 1946. This meeting was addressed by Krayeki and George Firinsky, executive secretary, with the former in his talks stressing the "political" importance of the congress, pointing out that it is being held just prior to the United Nations meeting scheduled, according to Krayeki, for September 23, 1946. He dwelt upon the absolute necessity for a good attendance at the September congress.

Further interviews with [REDACTED] were conducted at [REDACTED] on October 26, 1950, and November 2, 1950, by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that his primary reason for severing his connection with the Government was due to the extremely inconsistent and uncomfortable position in which he found himself as a member of the underground Communist group and a loyal Government employee. He stated at this time he desired to remain a Communist but also felt himself under pressure in living a life of deception. In this connection, he mentioned that he was rather outspoken in his opinions and often expressed his true feelings in discussions with [REDACTED] in which he would advance arguments which were pro-Communist in character during drinking sessions and other meetings with [REDACTED]. He again emphasized that [REDACTED] was not a Communist but stated [REDACTED] was aware of his New York background. [REDACTED] stated that he went to [REDACTED] and related his feelings, emphasizing the point by showing that since he was a known Communist, he was dangerous to the underground group in Washington with the result that [REDACTED] consented to his, [REDACTED], returning to New York.

[REDACTED] stated that he had some idea of writing. He mentioned that he had written for "New Republic" magazine previously but stated his articles were so pro-Communist that he was unable to get anything published at that time. He stated he remained in New York during the winter of 1934, living in single status in a room in Greenwich Village and added that to an extent this period was rather wasted. He stated he joined a Communist Party unit known as the Longshoremen's Concentration Unit which consisted of a group of ten to twenty Party members and was engaged in organizing and working among longshoremen along the docks, although the membership did not consist of longshoremen. He insisted that he could not recall the names of the members of this group and indicated that he did not do a great deal of work
